

School of Arts & Sciences Prospectus – Fall 2023

Elementary Italian I

Course ID and 7-digit Number: ITAL 0100-304

Course Description

Italian 0100, or Elementary Italian I, is an introductory course for students who have never studied Italian before. Students are required to attend classes four times a week and complete the assigned material in a timely manner, as indicated by the instructor. Classes, taught in Italian, emphasize the development of communicative skills and conversational competence. Throughout the semester, students will develop their listening, reading, writing, and speaking skills. Learners will engage in meaningful tasks and interactive activities, inside and outside the classroom. Students will be exposed to authentic cultural materials, such as films, video clips, songs, and literature. Classwork will be supplemented with homework in the course text and other assignments provided by the instructor. In class, students will have abundant opportunities to speak individually, in pairs, in small groups, and with the instructor. Students who have previously studied Italian are required to take the Placement Test.
