Elementary Italian II

Course ID and 7-digit Number: ITAL 0200-303

Course description

Italian 0200, or Elementary Italian II, is a second semester continuation of our introductory Elementary Italian I course. Classes are conducted in Italian and emphasize the development of communicative skills and conversational competence. Throughout the semester, learners will develop cross-cultural, listening, reading, writing, and speaking skills. Learners will engage in meaningful tasks and interactive activities, inside and outside the classroom. Students will be exposed to authentic cultural materials, such as films, video clips, songs, and literature. Classwork will be supplemented with homework, and with accompanying assignments provided by the instructor. Students will have abundant opportunities to speak together as a class, in pairs, small groups, and with the instructor. Students who have previously studied Italian are required to take the Placement Test.

Prerequisites:
