Course Description and Level

Intended for students who have no Japanese background. In this course, all four skills, (speaking, listening, writing, reading) are equally emphasized and cultural knowledge will be introduced accordingly. Students will be able to participate in conversations about familiar topics such as shopping, restaurants, hometown, daily life, trip, and family. The class will be engaging by asking and answering questions to get to know each other. Students will also be able to read texts related to everyday life, personal interests, or studies. An introduction to modern written Japanese, including hiragana and katakana syllabaries (two sets of Japanese syllabic letters) and about 70 Chinese characters (Kanji) are introduced.
